book sales
and signings

Transform Your Body | Enhance Your Energy | Supercharge Your Life

integrative nutrition all in one book

- How about having your copy of FUELLED personally dedicated to you and signed by the author (and possibly the photographer too!)?
- Book sales and signings provide more than just a chance to obtain a copy of a book along with an author signature and reading. Businesses and communities benefit because they provide an opportunity for a fun, relaxed, social event to enjoy together, where like-minded people can connect.
- Corporate offices, churches, gyms and other businesses boost wellness education by providing this fun event for their staff, communities and clients. And with FUELLED, a powerful health philosophy is being shared.
- A book sale and signing also allows Agathe to meet her readers and provides a chance for readers to see and meet her and ask her questions. She will also do a reading from the book and would be more than happy to tailor the rest of the book signing to suit your wishes.

As an author and certified health coach,
Agathe puts the power back in YOUR hands

- If you'd like to ask about a book sale and signing of FUELLED, no matter if you're a library, bookstore, gym, fitness centre, health food store, grocery store, chiropractor, doctor, lifestyle store, home/kitchen store, health insurer, or other business...
- Your next step is to contact Agathe and start the discussion.

➤ Consider adding in a cooking demo and tasting too for more fun!
